ROXBURY, MASS., February 18, 1866.

DEAR SIR :

After sending you the Catalogue of Mr. Chambers' Sale, which takes place at the Book Trade-Sales Room of J. E. Cooley, 498 Broadway, New York, February 27 and 28, and March 1, it was discovered that through the carelessness of the binder the title-pages were omitted in several copies ; and as the date of sale was not elsewhere given, it is deemed proper to send this special notice, as it is impossible to tell whether the copy sent you was or was not one of the defective ones.

Orders to purchase will be executed as usual by EDWARD COGAN, Esq., 101 William Street, New York, by the Auctioneers, or the undersigned, who, from February 25 to March 1, may be addressed at 498 Broadway, New York.

W. ELLIOT WOODWARD.

CATALOGUE

OF

ROBERT B. CHAMBERS'

COLLECTION OF AMERICAN

COINS AND MEDALS.

MOUNT PLEASANT, ROXBURY, MASS.,

February 1st, 1866.

THE collection described in the present catalogue, though not large, comprises many most desirable specimens, particularly in the departments of Washingtons and Colonials.

Scattered through the catalogue will be found nearly an entire series of the national and other mint medals in bronze, with many in silver.

The descriptions have been drawn as correctly as possible, and I think it will be found that the pieces are not over-rated.

As soon after the sale as they can be got ready, priced catalogues will be forwarded to order at $1 each—with names of purchasers added, the price will be $2 each.

Priced catalogues of my last sale are now ready, price $1.50.

About the last of April, I shall offer for sale in New York, at the Book Trade-sale Rooms of J. E. Cooley, the collection of Francis S. Hoffman, Esq. Catalogues will be ready early in April.

W. ELLIOT WOODWARD.

- 64 1730 Gointoem Strong, Boston. Particular attention is called to the character of this Collection, it being perhaps the most remarkable ever offered for sale in America. As the owner's name does not appear in the "Directory," it is presumed that he modestly chose to conceal his identity by a nom de plume. Should the enterprising proprietor ever be found, it is to be hoped he will receive some fitting testimonial, both on account of the select nature of his collection and the remarkable literary ability displayed in the production of the catalogue.
